

CGA Club Newsletter – March 2018

To All Club Officers

Last Saturday, 175 women from 78 clubs attended the annual meeting. We had workshops on handicapping, rules, Tournament Management (Golf Genius) and an outstanding session on the mental game of golf.

CGA Benefits For You

- We are available to run rules of golf seminars at your club. Whether you have 5 or 15 or 50, we can tailor the discussion to your needs. If you want to know what's coming in 2019 – while the training material has not yet been published by the USGA, we can talk about the major changes so that you can try out the new rules now, if you wish. Call or email cga@coloradogolf.org to request a date.
- The Member Zone is open to CGA members. It is a login-only part of the CGA website under the Members tab or here that contains offers on services and products. We are looking to make sure there are “girl friendly” products – so we just added Sassy Caddy to the list. Avis, Budget, Hotel Engine, Constant Contact are also on offer. Check it out. And if you have ideas on products or services that we should add, please let us know.
- We have 7 Women's Golf Experiences scheduled for this season. These are 3-hour clinics run by LPGA or PGA professionals that include putting, chipping, long game and rules. Member cost is $65; bring a friend for $85. Includes lunch and give-aways. The full schedule is here on the CWGA website.
- Rules Cards for 2018 are available to buy. New this year, they are made of a more durable plastic material and can be ordered online at the CGA website under the Rules tab here. There is also a link from the CWGA website under Resources.
